Cross-Ownership Interests
and Overlapping Broadcast Signals

Tribune Company, Debtor-In-Possession, Tribune Television Company, Debtor-In-Possession's ultimate parent, owns all the capital stock of The Hartford Courant Company, Debtor-In-Possession, which publishes The Hartford Courant, a daily newspaper published in Hartford, Connecticut. Mr. Eldersveld is secretary and a director, Messrs. Kazan and Liebentritt are directors and Messrs. Amsden, Bigelow, Litman, Rodden and Shanahan are assistant treasurers of The Hartford Courant Company, Debtor-In-Possession. Accordingly, Messrs. Eldersveld, Kazan, Liebentritt, Amsden, Bigelow, Litman, Rodden and Shanahan each have cognizable interests in both a daily newspaper, on the one hand, and a television broadcast station, on the other, within Sections 73.3555(c)(1) and (c)(3) of the Commission's Rules.

On November 30, 2007, the FCC issued an order (the "Order") granting the applications of Tribune Company (the "Company") to transfer control of the Company from the Shareholders of Tribune Company to the Tribune Employee Stock Ownership Plan as implemented through the Tribune Employee Stock Ownership Trust, EGI-TRB, L.L.C. and Sam Zell. The transfer was consummated on December 20, 2007, and the Tribune Employee Stock Ownership Plan is now the 100% owner of the Company. In the Order, the FCC granted the Company a temporary waiver of the newspaper-broadcast cross-ownership rule to permit continued common ownership of WTIC-TV and The Hartford Courant for a six-month period beginning January 1, 2008. The six-month waiver is automatically extended under two conditions: (1) if the Company appeals the Order, the waiver is extended for two years or six months after the conclusion of the litigation over the Order, whichever is longer; or (2) if the FCC adopts a revised newspaper-broadcast cross-ownership rule prior to January 1, 2008, the waiver is extended for a two-year period to allow the Company to come into compliance with any revised rule, provided that in the event that the revised rule is the subject of a judicial stay, the waiver is extended until six months after the expiration of any such stay.

In the Order, the FCC also granted a permanent waiver of the local television ownership rule to permit common ownership of WTIC-TV and WTXX(TV), which have overlapping Grade B signal contours.

The Company filed an appeal of the Order in the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit on December 3, 2007. In addition, the Commission adopted a revised newspaper-broadcast cross-ownership rule on December 18, 2007. Petitions for reconsideration of the Order, which the Company opposed, have been filed at the FCC.
